

FAMSACA conference February 27-28th 2009 Draft program

PM	Thursday 26th February Registration
Friday 27th February
7.30	Registration
8.45-9.00	Welcome
9-10.30	Plenaries	Anal sex – everything you wanted to know but were afraid to ask
9-9.45	Anal sex plenary	Sexual practices with a focus on anal sex over the years and across the world: a retrospective view (yes that's looking behind) And what's the situation in contemporary Australia?
9.45-10.30	Anal sex plenary	The low down on anal rape in Australia /Australasia
10.30-11	Morning tea
11-11.50	What's normal about bottoms?
	Background on the anal region	Anatomy and physiology: a refresher; starting with consensual sex
11.50-1.15	What's not?	Differentiating pathology in the context of alleged sexual assault
	Background on the anal region	Infections, pathology and injury, forensic specimen collection, legal issues - terminology, cases, opinion etc
1.15-2	Lunch
2-2.45	Anal rape and expert opinion	The New Zealand experience
2.45-3.15	Panel discussion	Issues arising in Australia
3.15-3.40	Afternoon tea
3.40-5	Concurrent sessions	Including: toxicology, sexual offenders and the police, paediatric interviewing, post traumatic distress syndrome. physical findings in the abused child, male rape
5.30-7.30	Evening get together drinks, nibbles, entertainment

Saturday 28th February 2009
7.30-8.45 Breakfast and case studies
9-10.30	Plenaries	Prevention: better than cure?
9-9.30	Prevention plenary	Prevention of sexual assault: Theory
9.30-10	Prevention plenary	Prevention of sexual assault: Practice
10-10.30	Prevention plenary	Prevention of sexually transmissible infections: post exposure prophylaxis, where to begin, where to end and where is the evidence?
10.30-11 Morning tea
11-11.30	Consensus presentation	Presentation of consensus on anal rape and interpretation of findings by panel of experts
11.30-1	Concurrent sessions	Including: DFSA, models of care for sexual assault victims, colposcopy sexual assault and the elderly, feigning
1-2 Lunch
2-3.30	Workshops (rotating)	Including: interactive sessions on injury interpretation, forensic photography, being an expert witness, peer review, journal club
3.30-4 Afternoon tea
4-5	Proffered papers

Disclaimer: Please note this program is a draft and may be subject to alteration